

SPONSORSHIP INFORMATION

CAMPpeaceworks is an exciting project of the professional staff of Berks Women in Crisis' PeaceWorks Department and its community partners both volunteer and professional, with the support of the Allstate Foundation, the Episcopal Churches of Berks County, the Junior League of Reading, PA, the Reading Hospital & Medical Center, St. Joseph Medical Center, the Unitarian Universalist Church of Berks County, and others. The project began in fall 2006 following the decision by the participating churches to designate the CAMPpeaceworks Project as the beneficiary of their 2007 Boar's Head Festival's offering.

The goal of the CAMPpeaceworks Project is to encourage young people to work together within our community to foster a multicultural society based on love, caring, and justice – with the ultimate goal of decreasing violence by creating a more inherently peaceful society.

Currently, the CAMPpeaceworks team is recruiting a diverse group of 45 – 50 students currently in grades 8, 9 and 10 to participate in a five-day day camp which will take place from June 23 – 27, 2008 at the Olivet's Blue Mountain Camp near Hamburg. We are recruiting camper sponsors as well, so that all campers may attend “on scholarship,” or free of charge.

The camp utilizes the curriculum “Making the Peace,” by Paul Kivel, along with the training and technical support of Nell Myhand, from Oakland, California. The “Making the Peace” curriculum provides the framework for understanding violence, and the role of gender, race, class, and economic status as the issues which contribute to it. The program was written to help young people break away from violence, develop self-esteem, and regain a sense of community.

The CAMPpeaceworks Project begins with a five-day camp, but does not end there! An integral part of the project is the development of ongoing activities and initiatives within schools and faith-based institutions, and as part of community projects, that will continue the work begun at the camp.

We believe this project is a new beginning for a new approach to enlist young people to aid in the elimination of violence, the fostering of respect, the promotion of social justice, and ultimately peace, within our community.

Please consider sponsoring a camper! (See page 2) For additional information about the CAMPpeaceworks Project, contact Christine Gilfillan, PeaceWorks Coordinator, at 610-373-1206 or email christinev@berkswomenincrisis.org.

Many of us work to prevent acts of violence such as sexual assault, gang conflict, domestic abuse, and hate crimes. We may prune the branches of the tree of violence, but the tree always grows back. Why? We are providing important social service, but it does NOT lead to profound social change. We may be helping individuals, but it does not lead to community development. The tree of violence is rooted in social injustice based on inequality in race, class, gender, and sexual orientation. Join me and others in doing the root work necessary to build safe and just communities.”
