

VERY YOUNG GIRLS

learn more at WWW.GEMS-GIRLS.ORG

THE DOCUMENTARY

Internationally acclaimed, Very Young Girls, is the first film of its kind that documents the buying and selling of very young girls for sex in the U.S. Very Young Girls is at the forefront of a national campaign to change public knowledge and perceptions of the commercial sexual exploitation of children.

Join the Berks Coalition Against Human Trafficking, Berks Women in Crisis, and members of FREE at one of these three public screenings with follow-up discussion.

FREE!

open to the public

Sunday, Jan. 15, 2012
2 to 4 PM

RC Reading Movies 11 & Imax
30 N. 2nd Street, Reading

Monday, Jan. 23, 2012

7 to 9 PM

Alvernia University
Bernardine Hall lecture hall

Monday, Jan. 30, 2012
7 to 9 PM

Kutztown University
Old Main 25

Event sponsored by the Berks Coalition Against Human Trafficking, FREE, and
Berks Women in Crisis

Berks Women in Crisis
50 N. 4th Street, Ste. 101
Reading, PA 19601
610.373.1206

www.berkswomenin crisis.org
hotline: 610.372.9540

Rachel Lloyd | Co-Executive Producer
Rachel, survivor of commercial sexual exploitation, is the founder and Executive Director of Girls Educational and Mentoring Services (GEMS).

David Schingell | Producer and Director
Mr. Schingell produced and directed long-form television for the past fifteen years.

Priya Swaminathan | Co-Director and Producer
Priya Swaminathan assisted-produced projects with David Schingell from mental hospitals in America to former child soldiers in Colombia.

Nina Alvarez | Co-Director and Producer
Nina won Emmy and Ingegn awards during fifteen years of producing news and documentaries.